

11 Greek Street Soho, W1D 4DJ

Location:

Greek Street runs parallel with Dean Street which is opposite Soho Square - a hub of activity all year round. Greek Street has always had a colourful air, indeed both Casanova stayed here in 1764 and Thomas De Quincey (writer of Confessions of an Opium Eater) lived here in the early 1800s. Since then the area has become home to several household media corporations such as 20th Century Fox and Paul McCartney's MPL Communications.
