

41 Corsham Street Shoreditch, N1 6DR

Location:

This centre is a stone's throw from the Old Street Underground station and several convenient bus routes, so it's easily accessible. Nearby landmarks include the Silicon Roundabout, the centre of the city's tech scene.

Description:

This business centre has had much of its interior stripped back to the bare concrete and covered with graffiti art to give it a fun, industrial feel. At the centre of it all is an incredible spiral staircase that local artists have covered with a colourful mural. Illuminated by skylights, the coworking space has two floors of workspaces and a large communal area that serves as a social hall for the members. There's private office space options and a great range of creatively designed meeting rooms.
