

City Tower Piccadilly Plaza Manchester, M1 4BT

Location:

Situated within a stunning 28 storey building located on the outskirts of Piccadilly Gardens, this state of the art business centre offers breath-taking views across the Pennines and the entire north-western landscape. Directly in front of the building is Manchester's main transport interchange, which is the city's bus and tram depot. From here all areas of the city are easily accessible. Manchester Piccadilly train station is less than a 10-minute walk away and has direct links to both the north and south of the country. Manchester International Airport can also be accessed via this station.

Description:

A modern business centre in the heart of Manchester, based in one of the city's tallest office buildings. The flexibility of the space within this business centre offers working areas with traditional fully-furnished offices, large hot desking facilities, a variety of modern break out and coworking areas and a variety of meeting rooms available to book for internal and external clients. There's also car parking available, which can be rare for a city centre location.
