

The Old Library Trinity Road, Old Market Bristol, BS2 0NW

Location:

The centre is ideally placed for access to Cabot Circus and the city centre. Positioned not far from the end of Lower Stapleton Road there is access to a range of great little independent stores and take-aways.

Description:

This is a Grade II listed purpose built Victorian public library built for the residents of St Philips in the last decade of the 19th century. It is a building of great character and architectural importance with half timbered ceiling, decorated leaded windows, an internal colonade of classical arches and glazed tiles to the walls. It has been sensitively refurbished to create a unique and comfortable small business centre. It houses a total of 8 units varying in size from 100 sqft to a spacious and rather grand 1300 sqft for the slightly larger or expanding business.
