

Pitfield House 41 Pitfield Street Shoreditch, N1 6DA

Location:

Located in the heart of Shoreditch, moments away from Old Street roundabout, centre of the third largest tech hub in the world. Excellent transport links with Old Street, Barbican, Moorgate, Liverpool Street and Shoreditch High Street train and tube stations within close proximity.

Description:

Pitfield House is an iconic building in the centre of London's tech city, featuring original artwork by British graffiti artist, Stik. An A-grade office refurbishment, the building totals approximately 7,200 sq ft, featuring a roof terrace with a 360-degree view of the city, and a floating steel and glass box meeting room. The front façade and interior have undergone a full restoration as well as the inclusion of CAT6 cabling and all the latest tech facilities throughout. Amenities include custom feature lighting, shower and WC facilities, multiple refreshment areas and outdoor seating, a bespoke reception desk, high gloss units and breakout areas. The space is equipped with large event areas, useful for parties or recreation spaces.
