

No. 56 Fitzwilliam Square Dublin, D2

Location:

This centre is one of Dublin's most prestigious addresses. The three main public transport links are just a few minutes' walk from the centre and there are a host of businesses, including all the major banks, restaurants, cafés, public parks and cultural amenities.

Description:

Overlooking the iconic Fitzwilliam Square, Dublin's last private park, this beautiful Georgian building has been refurbished to a very high level. There's a mixture of office sizes available from one-person to 10 people open plan, all the offices are very tastefully furnished with desks, chairs, artwork and mirrors and in many of the rooms the fireplaces have been restored. One of the biggest features of this building is the ceiling heights which on some floors reach 16 feet.
