

Lowry House 17 Marble Street Manchester, M2 3AW

Location:

Transport-wise, the Piccadilly Gardens tram and bus interchange is on your doorstep and Manchester's Piccadilly train station is just a short walk away. The building also has onsite parking available but if you want to get on your bike, the building's secure cycle store makes cycling to work a practical option.

Lowry House benefits from an onsite Philpotts coffee shop and across the road you can find the main city centre Post Office.

Description:

A large, modern reception run by the onsite team. Bike storage, shower and changing facilities. A central location. Amazing views of the city. And a ground floor that's home to a contemporary business lounge with breakout space and complimentary refreshments. The building offers a full range of products with everything from a single coworking desk through to meeting room bookings or a tailor-made managed office solution.
