

Bank House 27 King Street Leeds, LS1 2HL

Location:

Bank House is located just a stone's throw from Leeds Station making it ideally placed to accommodate all kinds of modern demands for mobility, flexi-work, as well as a healthy work-life balance that supports mental health and wellbeing.

Description:

The Grade II listed building is characterised by an iconic minimalist construction language that is told through polished Cornish granite and bronze cladding delivering the city's finest reflection of '70s British brutalism. The former regional Headquarters of the Bank of England, Bank House is famous for its retro style but with a modern interior. The 3rd floor has dual lighting throughout the floor.
